Minutes of the Faculty Senate
November 4, 1982

Chairperson W. Marsh called the meeting to order at 4:05 p.m.

Present were: C. Arnold, P. Briere, D. Dahlman, F. Dreisbach, E. Evans, J. Gallo, P. Garrett, R. Grabowski, A. Gundry, L. Halma, C. Hamel, G. Innocenti, J. Johnson, P. Laincz, R. Lucas, S. Mack, P. Malpas, A. Margolis, W. Marsh, A. Matz, A. McKinley, S. Ottinger, R. Rhein, G. Schaeffer, T. Schantz, A. Schutt, T. Seay, G. Sharp, S. Tibbits, J. Treadway, L. Trollinger, R. Wittman.

E. Kern and T. Reeves were excused.

Others in attendance were: T. Johnson, Student Government representative, D. Lenhart substituting for P. Ori, J. Kulp substituting for J. Richards, J. Schellenberg, J. Erdmann, A. Sinclair, G. Layser, J. Hall.

S. Tibbits moved, R. Wittman seconded the approval of the agenda. Motion passed.

Chairperson W. Marsh announced that in view of the untimely death of Dr. Albert Dixon that the Faculty Affairs Committee prepare an appropriate resolution for the December Senate meeting.

The minutes of the October 7 meeting of the Senate were approved upon motion of J. Johnson and with a second by J. Treadway.

L. Trollinger moved to suspend the rules in order to take up item "A" under Old Business before the business of the Standing Committees. R. Wittman seconded the motion which was approved.

R. Wittman moved that the admission policy proposal be taken from the table; S. Tibbits seconded the motion. Revised admission policy proposal was distributed; it was explained that there were no substantive changes, additions and revisions were included by the Academic Affairs Committee of the Senate to clarify the wording. Each change was explained with an emphasis on fairness, clarity and gradual rather than abrupt alterations to improve the current policy. G. Sharp moved approval of the policy; G. Schaeffer seconded. The motion carried. S. Ottinger and R. Rhein asked to have their negative votes recorded. Mr. Rhein contended that the admission policy should be strengthened. G. Schaeffer requests that consideration of admission policy be an ongoing process.

Curriculum Committee Report

Speaking for the Curriculum Committee of the Faculty Senate, P. Briere moved the approval of item 83-2, the Dance package with the exception of Da2___, "Dance Through the Ages." S. Mack seconded the motion. During the time allotted for comment, it was pointed out that the package does not constitute a degree program but is needed as a category offering for the Related Arts program; that a full-time dance faculty person would be desirable if complement would allow; and that all of the courses should have a prefix "Dance."

While the subject was being discussed, revised outlines and revised bibliographies for "Dance Through the Ages" were distributed. J. Johnson moved that the revisions be accepted; seconded by A. Gundry. No vote was taken. G. Innocenti moved, seconded by C. Arnold, that all courses in the package including "Dance Through the Ages" be accepted. Following a discussion J. Treadway moved to refer the motion concerning "Dance Through the Ages" to the Curriculum Committee of the Faculty Senate and vote on the motion as it was originally proposed. The first count was a tie vote. E. Evans called for a recount. The motion passed 18-13.

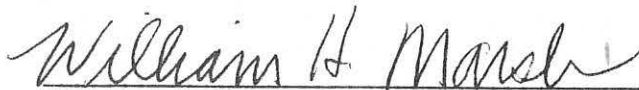

P. Briere moved approval of the Masters in Public Administration Program; seconded by S. Mack. Motion approved.

Old Business

P. Briere moved that Couns 516 be taken from the table; seconded by G. Innocenti. After comments from the Curriculum Committee of the Senate regarding the desirability of a name change for the course and a response about the lack of desirability of such a change at this time, T. Seay reported to the body that the Counseling Department had acted today that the course be withdrawn. E. Evans moved and A. Schutt seconded that the course be referred back to the department. Motion approved.

S. Ottinger moved to adjourn; seconded by C. Arnold. Meeting was adjourned at 5:05 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

William H. Marsh
Chairperson
